

LESSON 5: IDENTIFYING ISSUES FOR YOUNG WORKERS

Lesson aim:

- ✎ To explore what is important to young people in the workplace and how unions can help them.

Learning objectives:

At the end of this lesson students will be able to:

- ✎ explain the issues of importance to young workers.

Lesson outline:

In groups ask students to discuss the following:

- ✎ What issues are young people in work concerned about?
- ✎ Do you think these issues are relevant to all young workers?
- ✎ What can unions do to assist with these issues?

Assignment: Research

Find out, by writing to a union or talking to a union official:

- ✎ how unions can help to make the transition from school to work easier for young people; and
- ✎ what unions can do to encourage young people to participate in unions.
